"If you are fortunate enough to be travelling in India, and specially in the regions that he has already covered, then look no further. This is the one book you really need" ""Ward, in one sweep of his pen, with the strength of his convictions to back him, convinces his readers of the reality and the magic that is India"." - The Hindustan Times "South India" is a journey of exploration through the history, culture, wildlife, art, architecture, landscapes and communities of Tamil Nadu, Kerala, and Goa, with their diverse traditions of Hinduism, Christianity, and here and there Judaism, Islam and Jainism. From coastal Madras to the religious centres of Kanchipuram and Madurai, from the rock fort of Trichy to the tip of Cape Comorin, Philip Ward has wandered far and wide in the land of the Tamils. Kerala too is diverse and tropically lovely, with seaports and inland waterways, palaces and bazaars, wildlife sanctuaries and Kathakali dance festivals. Goa has become established as one of the world's most attractive beach-holiday resorts, but there is much to see in historic, abandoned Old Goa and its offshoot Panaji; in lakes and nature reserves; fascinating churches and inland temples, coastal forts and traditional Portuguese-style mansions. South India describes the cool hill-station still called 'Snooty Ooty', the great art gallery of Tanjore, the former French enclave of Pondicherry, and the rock-cut shrines and sculpture of 7th to 8th-century Mamallapuram. Intended for first-time visitors as well as experienced travellers who wish to understand the background to the vision, South India provides a sympathetic and thoughtful companion to some of India's most spectacular attractions. NETWORK MARKETING AND CALL OF THE FUTURE We should hear the call of the future that network marketing brings with itself. Major companies do not want middlemen such as stockists, agents, distributors, wholesalers and retailers to come between them and their customers. They want to connect directly with the consumer and they want to pass on the discounts directly to the end consumer which were earlier being given to stockists, agents, distributors, wholesalers and retailers. Many major companies worldwide have understood this fact and they are carrying on with their business through network marketing. We do not need to look far because leading Indian companies have accepted the truth that the best way of selling products in the future is through network marketing. Some companies have already adopted this system and their products are being sold in many major Indian cities. In the near future, products would be sold in every city, town and village through network marketing. Moreover, there are many other companies which are making preparations to adopt this beautiful system. So, it could be said that the network marketing business has a very bright future.
