This is the third volume in the series of trial-use liturgical resources that is resulting from the General Assembly actions to develop "a new book of services for corporate worship, including a Psalter, hymns, and other worship aids." For nearly thirty years, Geoffrey Oliver Tristram (GOT) was the celebrated Organist and Master of the Choristers at Christchurch Priory. He set a high standard for both organ performance and choral direction still widely revered and celebrated. This book charts GOT's life from his birth in Stourbridge, Worcestershire, in 1917 to his sudden death at the age of just 61. It looks at his career as student, teacher, choirmaster, accompanist and, especially, celebrated recitalist, at home and abroad. Drawing heavily on primary source material, including family archives and photographs, the book is complemented and underpinned by the memories and reminiscences of relations, friends, colleagues, peers, and others. It includes many contemporary reviews of his performances, right from his early days as a teenage Fellow of the Royal College of Organists until his last masterly recitals. Appendices give details about Tristram's recitals, broadcasts, and recordings, alongside specifications of the instruments at Christchurch Priory. The book also provides access to a selection of previously unreleased recordings made in the 1960s and early 1970s. Geoffrey Tristram: A Very British Organist, paints a rich picture of the man (husband, father, friend) and the musician, a player who had a significant influence on generations of organists and singers. All weddings that require the services of a church organist are, or should be, religious as well as social occasions. This fact must be kept in mind as the organist and participants select music that is acceptable from a religious as well as aesthetic point of view. In light of this, the selections in WEDDING SERVICE MUSIC FOR ORGAN were chosen to meet these requirements. It is the intention of the author that these selections impress listeners as expressions of joy as well as of religious solemnity. Contents: Bach: Aria (Bist Du Bei Mir), Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring, Siciliano; Handel: Aria (Semele), Larghetto (Concerto Grosso XII); Wagner: Bridal Chorus; Mozart: Church Sonata in E-flat Major, Wedding March (Marriage of Figaro); Marcello: Psalm 19; Processional Hymn (Westminster Abbey); Campra: Rigaudon; Davies: Solemn Melody; Purcell: Trumpet Tune; Clarke: Trumpet Voluntary; Mendelssohn: Wedding March (Midsummer Night's Dream). This collection presents 99 popular classical themes arranged as single-note melodies for guitar with chord accompaniment.
